FLARE

This design is able to have the shoulder pieces custom designed. Simple designs will not incur an additional fee but more complex/detailed designs will involve additional design and digitising fees.

All designs can have colours and fabrics changed. Some specialty fabric may involve an additional cost.

Small adjustments to the design can be made for an additional fee.

These designs keep the embroidery to a limited area to reduce the overall cost of the dress. If design changes are made that significantly change the amount of embroidery then this will be reflected in the final cost of the dress.
